

Aerangis maireae

Native of: Tanzania

Habitat: At low level on tree trunks in shade, mostly in hilly areas 1600 to 2100 m.

Description: This species was only described in 1998. small plant with white flowers.

Cultivation Guidance: At school we grow similar plants mounted and hot (min18°C) in low light.

Flowering season: ?

Flask to flowering approx: 2-3yrs we expect

Seedling source: Kath Fairhurst